

New youth hip-hop class !!! with G. Madison IV

starting January 2.
Mon/Wed 4:00-5:00 pm

While working in film, television and theater, G. Madison has worked with The La Jolla Playhouse, San Diego and Asian American Reparatory Theaters, dance companies including Groovaholix, Ujima, UrbanFX, Golden Touch, Cal State LA's Team Flight, Sexy Salsa Divas, X-Factor, Generation F, Positive Energy Salsa Company, Contagious Flow, and Groove Theory. With his newly acquired bachelor's degree in Radio, TV & Film: Broadcast Journalism from Cal State LA, G currently travels with The Living Garden, having performed at numerous events around the world. While performing he is steadily training and choreographing for various dance troupes, established and upcoming recording artists and students of the arts throughout Southern California. He is one of Cal State Los Angeles' newest faculty members, teaching Salsa and Hip Hop for the Department of Theatre Arts & Dance and has created a new dance curriculum titled, Commercial Dance. While working in the following west coast dance studios; The Academy of Performing Arts, A Time To Dance, Black & Brown Studio, Temecula Dance Co., Athletic Garage, and Jay-Vee Dance Center, he has been featured on television shows, music videos, staged productions and dance showcases including BRAVO, The 2005 Grammy Awards, Seeing Stars, The Tyra Banks Show, Pussycat Dolls Presents:, The DROP, The Choreographers' Carnival, an HP Industrial with choreographer Dave Scott, and The Dance-Off. With training and an extended amount of performance experience in HIP-HOP, SALSA, and JAZZ-FUNK, G. is happy to be one of DANCE ARTS ACADEMY's newest Hip Hop instructors. G plans to immerse his students in a new style every week; training that will prepare you for professional dance work in today's ever-changing industry.

"Ill see you on the dance floor!"
